TOWO ODUKOYA

odukoyatowobola@gmail.com | +44 (0)7424 064 853 | linkedin.com/in/towobolaodukoya | towobola-od.github.io

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

LLM-qualified compliance professional with experience investigating complex regulatory matters and supporting conduct risk programmes within financial services environments. Track record of leading investigative projects, conducting forensic-style compliance reviews, and delivering findings to senior stakeholders. Skilled in policy governance and regulatory framework development, with a commitment to building controls that drive sustainable compliance outcomes.

Core Competencies: Policy Governance • Stakeholder Management • Regulatory Compliance • Presentation Skills• KYC &Customer Due Diligence • Compliance Reporting • Regulatory Research (FCA, GDPR)

EDUCATION

Queen Mary University of London

Master of Laws (LLM) Regulation and Compliance | 2023 – 2025
Grade: (Merit)
Dissertation: Data Protection and Information Security in Financial Services (Distinction)

University of Brighton

Bachelor of Laws (LLB), with Honours | 2020 – 2023
Grade: (2:1)
Relevant Modules: EU Law, International Law, Company Law (74%), Data Privacy Law (77%), Contract Law.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

GEM Environmental Building Services Ltd, London (Remote)

Regulatory Affairs Associate | Nov 2025 – March 2026

- Investigated regulatory incidents with discretion, supporting escalation procedures and risk identification in line with internal policies and governance frameworks.
- Acted as first point of contact for compliance queries from councils, housing associations, and internal stakeholders.
- Developed and maintained preventative controls, policies, and procedures to ensure regulatory compliance across client base.

Queen Mary University of London – Regulation & Compliance Clinic

Team Lead – Regulatory Projects | Jan 2024 – Aug 2024

- Conducted transaction monitoring and flagged [15+] suspicious activities for escalation in line with FCA and AML/CTF best practices.
- Drafted compliance policies and recommendations aligned with FCA conduct rules and data protection requirements.
- Directed client due diligence (CDD) and KYC investigations for simulated legal onboarding, verifying identities, screening for PEPs, sanctions, and adverse media using industry-standard databases.

Cripps LLP, Horsham

Summer Legal Intern | Sept 2023

- Supported investigations and due diligence reviews involving sensitive client matters, maintaining utmost discretion.
- Collaborated across litigation, IP, and accounts teams, demonstrating stakeholder management and cross-functional communication.

University of Brighton – School of Business and Law

Legal Research Assistant | July – Sept 2022

- Independently managed complex research projects on governance and regulatory frameworks, demonstrating ability to work autonomously.
- Authored publications conveying complex legal concepts to diverse audiences; received recognition for contribution to Corporate Law module.

SKILLS & REGULATORY KNOWLEDGE

Investigations & Conduct Risk: Complex investigations, forensic review, breach identification, conduct metrics.

Policy & Governance: Policy drafting, control design, regulatory framework development, governance reporting.

Regulatory Frameworks: FCA Conduct Rules, MIFID II, MAR, UK GDPR/DPA 2018, AML/KYC procedures, sanctions compliance.

Technical: Microsoft Office (Excel, Word, PowerPoint), Westlaw, LexisNexis, AI & Emerging Technologies.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- EDI (Equality, Diversity and Inclusion) Committee Volunteer – University of Brighton: Championed policy changes benefiting international students.
- Thought Leadership- published articles on ESG governance and AI regulation on LinkedIn.
- Recognition: Cripps LLP Award for 'highest research contribution to Corporate Law module'
- Eligible to work in the UK. Available immediately.